Themencheck · eine Aufgabe je Lehrplan-Thema · Lösungen

Name: _____ Datum: _____

Eine Aufgabe pro Thema. Rechne, was du kannst, und lass den Rest aus. Unten siehst du dann, wo es noch hakt.

a) Present perfect or simple past

Write the past participle.

Regular verbs: -ed. Irregular: go - went - gone, see - saw - seen, write - wrote - written, eat - ate - eaten, be - was/were - been, take - took - taken, break - broke - broken, buy - bought - bought

go gone

b) Future: will and going to will or going to? Fill in.

going to: plans you have already made, and things you can see coming (clouds -> rain).

will: spontaneous decisions, opinions and guesses (I think, maybe, probably), promises.

Look at those clouds! It ... (rain). is going to rain

c) Comparison of adjectives

Write the comparative and the superlative.

One syllable: -er / -est (tall, taller, the tallest). big -> bigger. -y -> -ier. Two or more syllables: more / most interesting. Irregular: good - better - best, bad - worse - worst, far - further - furthest.

tall taller, the tallest

d) Modal verbs

What does the modal verb express? Write: ability, permission, obligation, prohibition or advice.

can = ability or permission. must = obligation (you have to). mustn't = prohibition (not allowed). should = advice. needn't = not necessary.

You must wear a helmet. obligation

e) Relative clauses

who, which or whose? Fill in.

who -> people. which -> things and animals. whose -> possession (his, her, their). that can replace who and which.

The girl ... sits next to me is from Poland. who

f) If-clauses type 1 and 2

Type 1: Fill in the correct forms.

Type 1 (real, possible): if + simple present, will + verb. Never will in the if-clause.

If it ... (rain), we ... (stay) at home. rains, will stay
